

100th Year Reunion of the 91st Cyberspace Operations Squadron

My name is Steve O'Rando, and along with MSgt Knight, we work at the 91st Cyberspace Operations Squadron at Lackland AFB in San Antonio. Our squadron was previously named the 91st Strategic Reconnaissance Squadron when it was assigned to the 91st Wing. Currently we are planning on 3 events next Aug to commemorate 100 years:

We're going to have a wreath laying at the grave of our first squadron commander (Major John N. Reynolds), with a presentation to some of his descendants.

We're planning on a static display in front of our current home, details still to be worked out.

To cap off the week, we're planning on a Dining Out with as many of the previous squadron members as we can locate. The 91st Strategic Reconnaissance Squadron was a huge part of our history, and we'd be excited to have as many of the members show up for any of these events as we can get.

If any of the SRS members do decide to take part, we also have a Facebook page, the Demon Chaser Alumni page, where the information will be posted as well. And as I wrote previously, MSgt Knight and I have our email addresses available if anyone wants updates that way.

I'll keep everyone's email address, and as we have more information and updates, I'll send it to you for posting.

Thank you all for your assistance!

Sincerely,
Steve O'Rando
